Why do you recommend them for membership in the GKSC?

As a sponsor, you are expected to be well-acquainted with the candidate and therefore give assurance to their character and moral fiber. You must be willing to be contacted by the Club prior to them being offered membership to again certify that you support their candidacy.

It is your responsibility to inform the candidate of the financial requirements to join the club, and that when they are offered membership, they must pay: (1) the initiation fee; (2) the going rate for the Construction Certificate; and (3) the annual dues. Additionally, you are responsible for informing the candidates of our by-laws and rules and regulations.
